the 1990s, the number of people with a mental health problem has increased by 50% (Mental Health Foundation 1999). The prevalence of mental health problems has increased in the general population, and the incidence of mental health problems has increased in the prison population.

There is a growing awareness of the need to address the mental health needs of prisoners. The Department of Health (2000) has published a strategy for mental health services, which includes a commitment to improve the mental health of prisoners. INSTRUMENTAL DEPARTMENT

First of all, the band cooperated with the school by giving performances at the home football and basketball games, convos, P.T.A. programs, and various other programs.

The band received sixteen first-place and twenty-six second-place ratings at the district solo and ensemble contest held at Morton High School in Hammond on February 6. First-place winners went to the state contest at Butler University on February 20 to win one first-place and four second-place ratings.

Concerts were given on November 11 at Columbus School, on November 17 for the Central-Edison P.T.A., on December 16 for the annual band-choir Christmas program, on December 18 for the annual band-choir Christmas convo, and May 9 for the annual Spring Concert.

April 3, a first-place rating was taken by the band at the district contest, which was held at Walkerton, Indiana. April 10, the band took second place at the state contest at Knox, Indiana.

The band's first trip was taken to participate in Indiana University's high school marching band at the football game on October 10. The final trip was a tour of southern Indiana on April 29, 30, and May 1.

The last instrumental performance was at Commencement on May 28.

EDISONIAN STAFF

The Edisonian staff with the able assistance of Miss Hartley and Mr. Coner published again the yearly Edisonian. The 1954 edition was based on realism and was produced under the guidance of the staff's motto: "It's time for a change" throughout the year.

Much hard work has been put forth in the securing of ads, the subscription campaign, and the publishing in general. The goal of the staff was to publish a book that would please every one and hurt no one's feelings as well as the best annual to be printed in Edison High School. The members of the staff have worked hard to achieve their goal.

We wish to thank the faculty, the administration, the students, our advertisers, our sponsor, our photographer, and anyone who has helped to make our book a success.

EAGLE FEATHERS

Every two weeks an issue of our school paper, Eagle Feathers, was published by the staff. Sometimes we did not think we would meet our deadline, but through hard work of the staff and help from our sponsor, Miss Hartley, and our English critics—Mrs. Crisman, Mrs. Chapman, and Mr. Owen—we were able to print a paper that we hope all liked and appreciated.

The paper was comprised primarily of news articles about school, class, organization, sports, and sometimes outside activities. It also contained spiritual, moral, and educational editorials for the purpose of improving our school and helping the students to gain knowledge of importance.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Our Student Council is different from other organizations of the school since it is a student government organization and its purpose is to recommend to the administration improvements in the functioning of the daily school program, regulations, and activities. Each organization and class including the eighth grade was represented on the Council.

Officers and Sponsor

Mr. Owen, sponsor; Warren Ellis, vice-president; Ann Marie Halaschak, secretary-treasurer; James Meister, president.

Once again, the most important social event sponsored by the Council during the school year was the annual Homecoming Dance, which was held after the Portage football game on October 16. Betty Jakich was crowned as Homecoming Queen by James Meister, student council president.

During the Christmas season of the year, the Council decorated the halls with colorful lights and angel hair. The beautiful Christmas decorations added a bit of cheer and seemed to manifest a real Christmas spirit among the student body and faculty.

BOOSTER CLUB

Much credit should be given to the members of the Booster Club for the school spirit they spread throughout the football and basketball seasons for the third consecutive year. Bus transportation was arranged by the club to away-from-home games.

A dance, the proceeds of which was used for cheerleader uniforms, was sponsored after the game with Morton High School of Hammond on October 30. A second dance was given after the Hobart game on January 22—the proceeds being used to pay for part of the bus transportation to away-from-home games.

Officers and Sponsors

Mr. Bromberg, sponsor; Marcia Klempa, treasurer; Kathryn Pappas, secretary; Kathleen Blagg, vice-president; Claudette Cruikshank, president; Mr. Owen, sponsor.

G. A. A.

"More active than preceding years" seemed to be the slogan of the Girls Athletic Association this year. Throughout the year the girls participated in group sports such as basketball, volley ball, bowling, and swimming.

By taking part in group sports, the girls earned points to earn a letter and a sweater in their senior year. Red sweaters with black letters were chosen by the seniors.

An informal initiation of the new members was held in the gymnasium on September 30.

The G.A.A. sponsored a dance after the Griffith basketball game on January 15. The senior girls played against the girls of the Bell Telephone operators in a basketball game on March 4. This was the first time that the girls of Edison played an outside opponent for many years, as Edison had had a girls' basketball team in her early history before the G.A.A. was organized in 1939.

The annual banquet was held at the Marshall House in Gary on April 28, at which time the awards were presented.

Rekamemohs began the year with the initiation of the new members. During the first week of school a "Big and Little Sister Week" was held. As a climax of the week of initiation a formal tea was given in honor of the new members on September 11.

Mrs. Milchak, who gave the club its first "big push," was the sponsor the first semester. Following Mrs. Milchak's resignation, Mrs. Gleason, the new home economics teacher, sponsored the club the second semester.

F. T. A.

At the beginning of the year, a new club was organized and comprised of the future teachers of America, calling its chapter the Virgil I. Bailey Chapter after Mr. Bailey, our school's superintendent. Mrs. Chapman and Mr. Roos were the club's sponsors.

Front row—Barbara Poffinbarger, secretary-treasurer; Marilyn Homolla, vice-president; Phyllis Cohn, president.

The chapter was formed to help students who thought they might wish to become teachers in deciding which grade of teaching they might prefer.

As one of its projects the club gave assignments to members to observe, to help, and then to teach as cadet teachers. Seniors, juniors, and sophomores who met the grade requirements were given assignments.

A hot dog sale was sponsored at the noon hour as a financial project of the club.

The year was concluded with a trip to Ball State Teachers College in Muncie, Indiana, on May 19.

FIFTEENTH ANNUAL LAKE COUNTY GIRLS' CONFERENCE

Approximately 500 girls from twenty-one high schools attended the Fifteenth Annual Lake County Girls' Conference, which was held in our school on April 24. The morning program was opened with a welcome by Mr. Bailey, superintendent of East Gary Schools; Mr. Roos, principal of Edison High School; and James Meister, Student Council president. A talk was given by Miss Elizabeth Kressler on her summer tours of Europe. At 11:00 A. M. the girls divided into smaller discussion groups and for an hour discussed the subjects: friends in the home, further education, marriage and/or business, boy friends, and high school clubs. At noon, lunch was served by mothers of Edison girls under the supervision of Mrs. Gleason, home economics instructor. The afternoon program featured group singing led by Ann Marie Halaschak, Harriet Allyn, a humorist, and a style show presented by the Coronet Shop.

VARSITY

Under our new coach, Mr. Gaza, the Varsity improved over recent years by winning nine and losing ten games and placing third in the Calumet Conference with a five and three record. Although the season opened with two consecutive losses, the Eagles did not lose confidence and, thus, defeated Dyer, Wirt, and Wheatfield. After losing the Calumet Township Tournament, they defeated the tough Edison team of Gary a week later. They lost a hard-fought game to Griffith but bounced over Lowell and battered Hobart in an overtime period by one point. Merrillville, leading the conference for the second time, defeated the Eagles as did the Indians of Portage. One of the most brilliantly played games of the season was the victory over Brook, who at that time had lost only one game of the season, followed by a loss to Wheeler and Chesterton. In the Gary Sectionals the Eagles, again, defeated the Troopers of Wirt but lost by only two points in the semi-finals.

Warren Ellis was chosen as the most valuable player and received the award given by the Adult Booster Club of East Gary; he was selected on the Chicago Tribune All Conference Team and the original coaches' All Conference Team. Edward Houck was selected by the players as honorary captain; also, Ed Houck and Robert Mayka received honorable mention on the All Conference Team.

E-MEN'S CLUB

As in past years the E-Men's Club is an honorary club. Only boys who have received a letter in one of the major sports—football, basketball, or track—are eligible to become members of the club.

Officers and Sponsors

Mr. Georgakis and Mr. Gaza, sponsors; Warren Ellis, president; Robert Thews, secretary-treasurer; Stephen Smith, vice-president.

Each year the senior boys look forward to the Senior Honor Banquet held at Teibel's Restaurant in their honor. The banquet is sponsored by the Lions Club of East Gary. The senior lettermen, cheerleaders, and four top ranking scholastic students had the privilege of attending the banquet on May 3.

The annual athletic banquet, which honored all the athletes of Edison, was sponsored by the E-Men's Club and the Adult Booster Club of East Gary on May 11.

Each freshman entered the halls of Edison with happy expectation and great exaltation. Many of the students were already familiar with the rules and regulations since they attended Edison during their seventh and eighth grade years.

They chose as their leaders: Nick Morikis, president; Lawrence Petruzelli, vice-president; Judith Keyak, secretary; Robert Muraco, treasurer. Due to the withdrawal of Nick Morikis, Lawrence Petruzelli became president of the class, and Verle Jones was elected vice-president. Rita Werner and Bernard Halaschak were elected as Student Council representatives.

The big event of the freshman year was the Turkey Hop. This dance was held after the Merrillville game on November 28. Music was furnished by the dance band.

Among the class candidates chosen, Alberta Nagy was crowned queen of the carnival and received a Clinton watch.

The class dance was held on March 19 and was centered around a night club theme. The main event of the evening was a floor show with Alan Jackson as master of ceremonies.

At the beginning of the year, class officers were elected, and Dallas Lehmann and Peggy Barker were chosen as Student Council representatives.

First on the round of activities was the relinquishing of the title as winner of the girl's "Powder Puff" football game by only one point to the seniors on October 28.

Phyllis Cohn and Carl Jablonski were chosen as junior candidates for queen and king of the Central-Edison P.T.A. carnival. Carl Jablonski was crowned as king of the carnival on November 13. Honors went to the juniors again when Barbara Schaefer was crowned Sweetheart Queen of the Sunshine dance on February 13.

The month of April proved to be a busy time of the year, as the class play was presented on April 9, which was followed by the class dance on April 30. "Off the Track," a three-act comedy, had a different twist from plays given at Edison, since the scene was a small wayside railroad station and the cast consisted of a strange mixture of people thrown together by a derailed train.

The long-awaited Junior-Senior Prom ended the activities of the juniors on May 13 at Marquette Park Pavilion. The Stardust theme created a delightful atmosphere to the tunes of Fred Robert's orchestra.

Seniors

On September 2, 1951, the largest freshman class in the history of Edison entered its halls with eager anticipation for the four years before them. The class was soon organized under the leadership of Daniel Jaroscak, president; Gloria Conde, vice-president; Phyllis Sykes, secretary; Betty Jakich, treasurer.

As sophomores they began a new year—not quite so green but still full of enthusiasm. A new slate of officers was chosen for the year: Felix Ortiz, president; Ronald Kersey, vice-president; Norma Jeanne Patterson, secretary; James Meister, treasurer.

Finally, they advanced to that dreaded-of position of upper classmen. This year, the junior year, was filled with many events including the junior class play, class dance, rings, and prom. The girls brought their share of honor to the class by defeating the seniors 25 to 0 in the "Powder Puff" football game. The girls and boys shared equal ranks as officers: Joyce Minor, president; Ray Taylor, vice-president; Phyllis Sykes, secretary; Richard Uhlir, treasurer.

They were SENIORS as their fourth and most important year arrived. They assumed a new importance of supposed sophistication. This was their final and busiest year. Senior officers were Edward Houck, president; Donna Berg, vice-president; Felix Ortiz, secretary; Verna Faitak, treasurer.

The girls performed the initial stunt by winning the second annual "Powder Puff" football game 7 to 6 on November 4, which was followed by the class play the same week on November 6. "Let Me Grow Up" was presented with huge success. The class dance was held after the Edison-Wirt game on December 11.

Graduation, which came nearer and nearer, was heralded by senior pictures, name cards, and announcements. The seniors were entertained by the juniors at the annual Prom at Marquette Park Pavilion on May 13. A closed dance was held during senior week on May 26.

Baccalaureate was held on May 23; the seniors donned their caps and gowns for the first time—realizing that four wonderful years were coming to a close and another phase of life was beginning. That day for which they had been preparing was at hand, and on May 28, the Class of 1954 was graduated.

TO OUR ADVERTISERS

We, the staff members of the 1954 Edisonian, wish to extend our heartiest appreciation to the many merchants for their generous support of our yearbook. If it were not for their interest and cooperation, we could not record the joyous memories that time accumulates.

We can show our appreciation by patronizing these merchants in our community.

We hope that the merchants as well as the students will enjoy the 1954 Edisonian.

Farewell

To our friends, the classmen of lower rank, the teachers to whom we owe more than words can express or we even realize, and the halls of Edison, where we have gained our knowledge, we say farewell.

As our paths divide on each road of life in the future, we will take our yearbooks with us so that we may keep the happy memories that we cherish.
To these memories we will never say farewell.
